Reports

Dr. Isoye reported that 1) out of 70 entries submitted by faculty in the History Division, the work of 17 students was chosen to run in the 2013 Interpretations, OPRF's annual journal of the best student history writing; 2) Congratulations to Jonah Philion, who won the Class of 1940 History Writing Award for his piece entitled, "From 'History's Greatest Joke' to 'Crucial Watershed': The Historiography of the Crimean War and Why it is Now on Your Bookshelf." 3) Briana Williams and Nia Smith won first place in, respectively, oratory and filmmaking, at the state ACT-SO competition. They will now compete in the nationals in Florida; 4) Briana Williams will host as-yet-to-be-named TV program, which will replace the Tyler Milsap show; 5) 735 students registered for the 26-day summer school session, 255 students registered for the first 13-day session; and 79 registered for the second 13-day session; 6) 95 students enrolled in Driver Education and 114 students enrolled in Special Education classes. 7) The credit recovery classes in English, math and history were structured as a combined group and four teachers worked with as many as 60 students at one time to make up credit for failed courses. These students may have the opportunity to be on track for graduation if they can make up these credits. 8) More than 2,100 have registered for the 22 different sports camps, from 4-year-olds in swim lessons through current varsity athletes; 9) The summer musical Once Upon a Mattress runs the weekend of July 19; 10) Faculty member Aaron Podolner wrote the book How Would You Handle It?; and 12) Ms. Witham for thanked all of the work she had given to the faculty, staff, and administrators.

Ms. Witham provided a presentation on the Preliminary Budget. Also IEP and Video Management Software RFPs were presented.

Dr. Alson presented an update on the work of the Strategic Plan. Dr. Isoye presented an update on the Finance Advisory Committee.
